WHO WE ARE

The Winnsboro Education Foundation is governed by an independent, volunteer Board of Directors including business and community leaders, parents, educators, and alumni.

We will unite our resources - time, service, money and expertise with the needs of our school district to enhance and compliment the educational mission of WISD. Our board shares a vision for educational excellence and student achievement, organized exclusively for educational and charitable purposes withing the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
